

Group Discussion of All Over

Names _____

Pages _____ Story _____

Procedure: Choose a spokesperson, answer questions, find quotes when possible, and record page numbers.
Spokespersons: Write your group's answers to the questions below and number them. Use back if necessary.
Turn in at end of class.

Do a close reading of this story

- 1) in and of itself (what points are suggested?),
- 2) related to the play as a whole,
- 3) related to other Albee plays or his usual themes,
- 4) related to the teller (does it show anything about the character either new or consistent with our perception of the character from the rest of the play?)